

BUCHANAN FARMERS' MARKET POLICY ON THE COTTAGE FOOD LAW

Because we have been getting a lot of questions about the Cottage Food Law, the Market Board wants to clarify the market's position on the law as it pertains to our Market.

The Market WILL NOT let you sell vinegar and flavored vinegars at the market. Jams and jellies in glass jars that can be stored at room temperature may be sold as long as they are fruit only.

The Market also does NOT ALLOW baked goods that aren't made in a certified kitchen to be sold at the market unless you are participating in a non-profit bake sale.

- The following list of items ARE NOT ALLOWED to be produced in your home and sold at the Market.
- Meat and meat products like fresh and dried meats (jerky)
- Canned fruits or vegetables like salsa or canned peaches including canned fruit or vegetable butters like pumpkin or apple butter
- Milk and dairy products like cheese or yogurt
- Beverages—Kombucha teas, apple cider
- Focaccia style breads with fresh vegetables and/or cheeses
- Barbeque Sauce, ketchup, mustard
- Fish and fish products like smoked fish
- Canned pickled products like corn relish, pickles or sauerkraut
- Cut melons
- Ice and ice products
- Food products made from fresh cut tomatoes, cut melons or cut leafy greens
- Vegetable and other non-fruit based jams/jellies (hot pepper jelly)
- Raw seed sprouts
- Pies that require refrigeration to assure safety like banana cream, pumpkin, lemon meringue
- Garlic in oil mixtures
- Cut tomatoes or cut leafy greens
- Food products made with cooked vegetable products that are not canned
- Confections that contain alcohol
- Pet food or treats unless a commercial feed license is used to make in a home kitchen.
